Brian Simmons has done an amazing work in producing this translation. And one of the biggest reveals of all for me, that I think is fine to share, is that there are more books in this series. It's also interesting to see the push-back against the 'shrink it and pink it' mentality for women's ski gear compared to being the accepted in the biking industry.

The garlanding your brow with your mother's myrtle is rough-hewn blank verse - not at all bad, but standing apart from the metrical flow. It reminds me of when I go out in summertime, and I can play and have fun with my brother and people can come .
