To know that certain lines in a poem are quoted from some earlier author, is one of a class of facts which deeply interest scholars, but are of no importance whatever to the rest of the world. Io lavorava un loro giardino, bello e grndne, e oltre a questo, andava alcuna volta al bosco per le legne, attigeva aequo, e faceva cotdli altri servigetti ; ma le donne mi davano si poco, che io non ne poteva appena pagare i calzdri; I had the care of a large garden ; and, besides that, I used sometimes to go to the forest for wood, I drew water, and did other services for them ; but my wages were so small, that they would scarcely find my shoes.
